This is an example PDF file. It shows how you'd include a reference in the case. All of your reference material should be placed in this directory. You can then include any reference in an argument by simply entering its filename in the "link" field for an element — without the "../references/" prefix.